2) Age

Applicant must have been born on or after April 2, 1987.

3) Academic background

Master's program: Applicant must satisfy one of the following requirements, or be qualified or expected to be qualified by September 30, 2022 to enter in a master's program in Japan.

[1] has completed a 16-year school curriculum in a foreign country or is expected to complete them by September 30, 2022.

[2] has been found eligible according to a qualification review by Graduate School of Frontier Science Initiative or Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology, and will reach the age of 22 by September 30, 2022.

Doctoral program: Applicant must satisfy one of the following requirements, or be qualified or expected to be qualified by September 30, 2022 to enter in a doctoral program in Japan.

[1] has a master's degree or a professional degree or is expected to acquire such a degree by September 30, 2022.

[2] has been found eligible according to a qualification review by Graduate School of Frontier Science Initiative or Graduate School of Natural Science and Technology, and will reach the age of 24 by September 30, 2022.

4) Academic record

Applicant must have a GPA (Grade Point Average)* of 2.3 or higher in the last program in which they was or is currently enrolled, and be expected to maintain the GPA for the duration of the scholarship period.

* GPA will be calculated by the method which is designated by MEXT as follows

Category	Evaluation Grade
4 grades evaluation		Excellent	Good	Satisfactory	Fail
		A	B	C	F
		100-80	79-70	69~60	59-
5 grades evaluation	S	A	B	C	F
	A	B	C	D	F
	100-90	89-80	79-70	69-60	59-
GP	3	3	2	1	0

(Formula)

$$\frac{(\text{GP3 Number of Credits} \times 3) + (\text{GP2 Number of Credits} \times 2) + (\text{GP1 Number of Credits} \times 1) + (\text{GP0 Number of Credits} \times 0)}{\text{Total Number of Credits Registered}}$$

Note 1: If the course is not credit system, the number of credits will be replaced with the number of courses.

Note 2: If the applicant is a transfer student, the calculation is based on only the number of credits after the transfer.

Note 3: Grades (e.g., "Certified", "Pass", etc.) that are not listed in the above table will be excluded.

Note 4: If fractions appear in GPA, it will be rounded down to the third decimal place.

5) Language ability

[2] Those who cannot arrive in Japan during the period designated by MEXT or the accepting university;

[3] Those who are a previous grantee of Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship (including those who declined after arrival). However, this does not apply to the people who have educational research experience or work experience more than three years from the first day of the month following the final payment of the previous scholarship to the beginning of the payment of the scholarship, and the past grantees of Japanese studies scholarships (who have graduated or are going to graduate from universities in their home countries), or of Japan-Korea Joint Government Scholarship Program for the Students in Science and Engineering Departments, or in the Young Leaders Program;

Note: MEXT Honors Scholarship is not Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship, so the past grantee can also apply.

[4] Those who are applying for other programs of Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship for 2022;

[5] Those who are already enrolled in a Japanese university or other type of school with a residence status of “Student,” or who are enrolled, or plan to enroll, in a Japanese university or other type of school as a privately-financed international student from the time of application until the beginning of the payment of the scholarship. However, this does not apply to the people who, even though they are currently studying as a privately-financed student in Japan, will certainly complete their studies before the beginning of the payment of the scholarship and return to their home country;

[6] Those who are planning to receive scholarship from an organization other than MEXT (including a government organization of the applicant’s country) after the beginning of the payment of Japanese Government (MEXT) Scholarship;

[7] Those who are expected to graduate from a university at the time of application, and cannot satisfy the qualifications and the conditions related to academic background by the deadline given;

[8] Holders of dual nationality at the time of application who cannot verify that they will give up Japanese;

[9] Those who are scheduling, at the time of application, long-term research activities (internship, fieldwork etc.) outside of Japan or leave of absence.

[10] Those who have completed a doctoral course and have no intention to obtain a degree.

9) Others

MEXT Scholarship will be granted those who are willing to contribute to mutual understanding between Japan and their home country by participating in activities at schools and communities during their study in Japan while contributing to the internationalization of Japan. They shall also make efforts to promote relations between the home country and Japan by maintaining close relations with the university attended after graduation, cooperating with the conducting of surveys and questionnaires, and cooperating with relevant projects and events conducted by the Japanese diplomatic mission after they return to their home countries.
